1.10 User Stories | V1

Carine van Slageren

The goal of this document is to break down the scope of work into manageable tasks by creating user stories for each of the high level requirements for our application.

User Stories

Feature: Onboarding page

As a user, I want have an introduction to the main features of the app, so that I know how to get started with the app from the moment I download it.

Feature: Way to sign-up and log in

As a user, I want sign-up and log in, so that I can store my payment details safely.

As a user, I want sign-up and log in, so that I can store my personal details safely.

As a user, I want sign-up and log in, so that I can store my contacts safely.

Feature: Home screen or dashboard

As a user, I want have a home screen, so that I can easily switch between my different cards.

As a user, I want have a home screen, so that I can easily view and manage my recent transactions.

Feature: Menu to navigate the application

As a user, I want have a menu, so that I can navigate to my profile from anywhere in the app.

As a user, I want have a menu, so that I can ask for support from anywhere in the app.

As a user, I want have a menu, so that I can navigate to my payments from anywhere in the app.

Feature: Security to authenticate a transaction

As a user, I want to authenticate transactions through third party websites, so that only I can make transactions on my account.

Feature: Search through and filter past behaviour

As a user, I want search through past transactions, so that I can view my overall spending behaviour.

As a user, I want to search for a particular purchase in my past transactions, so that I can view the details of this transaction.

As a user, I want to search for a particular transaction, so that I can split this payment with other people.

Feature: Send, save, and move money

As a user, I want to auto save money so that I don't have to think about it.

As a user, I want to send money so that I can pay people.

As a user, I want to move money between different groups so that I can save for particular goals.

Feature: Budgeting or goal setting feature

As a user, I want to view where my money goes, so that I can see where I can improve my spending behavior.

As a user, I want to set budgets for different categories, so that I am less likely to spend too much.

As a user, I want to view of I am on track with my budgets, so that I can stick to my budgets.